

John Campbell Harmon

Prior to joining in the formation of Lovett Bookman Harmon Marks LLP in 2003, John Harmon was an attorney with Reed Smith LLP. Mr. Harmon earned his law degree from the University of Michigan and completed his undergraduate studies at West Virginia University and the Linsly School.

John is a member of the Pennsylvania Bar Association, the Allegheny County Bar Association and the Estate Planning Council of Pittsburgh.

John's practice is concentrated in the general field of estates and trusts law. His work consists of estate planning and estate and trust administration, with special emphasis on the preparation and implementation of complex trust arrangements; the estate, gift, and generation-skipping tax implications of such arrangements; the creation and implementation of gift programs; the creation and counseling of charitable entities; and advising corporate and individual fiduciaries. John has lectured extensively, taught classes, and conducted workshops on numerous topics in the field of estate and trust planning, administration and taxation. He has been a frequent and popular presenter at the Pittsburgh Plan Giving Council Summit.

John and his wife Anne reside in Fox Chapel and have two daughters. He is active in his church and is a member of the Board of Directors of The Pittsburgh Foundation, The Forbes Fund, the West Virginia University Foundation, the Pittsburgh History & Landmarks Foundation, the St. Margaret Foundation, and The Linsly School.
